

VETgirl Conference Attendee Policy and Guidelines

Since 2013, VETgirl has been the #1 online veterinary CE resource for busy veterinary professionals. Well, in order to meet our dedicated VETgirl fans in person, we're hosting the first ever VETgirl-U Veterinary Conference in Minneapolis August 17-19, 2018. VETgirl-U will invite participation from various members of the veterinary community including veterinary professionals, sponsors, and media. While we're not "rule freaks," here are a few things that you need to know about attending our conference to make it an awesome CE experience for you and your veterinary colleagues and/or family. By registering for and/or attending this VETgirl event, you are acknowledging that you agree to the following terms, which constitutes an agreement between you and VETgirl. This policy applies to all attendees, their agents, employees, and representatives that may attend this VETgirl event.

On-Site Policies and Guidelines:

- We're excited for this conference. We want you to be excited also! However, we don't want any disruptive or harassing behavior. Any form of discrimination, retaliation, or harassment will not be tolerated. If it's really egregious, we'll have to kick you out and no refund is possible (Although we know you will be professional...we also know there are some crazies out there!).
- Content from all learning sessions and other special events is protected by United States copyright laws and is the exclusive property of VETgirl or its authors. You may not, under any circumstances, share, distribute, publish, repurpose, or sell any such content, or attempt to do so, in any way without written consent from VETgirl, LLC.
- We're all for promotion through social media. It's ok to post pictures (Hey! Tag us on Instagram at vetgirlontherun, Twitter @VETgirlontherun or Facebook) and videos < 1 minute, but no posting of articles, sessions, or materials obtained from a VETgirl event without written consent from VETgirl.
- Again, if it's more than 1 minute of video and/or audio recording, you must obtain written consent from VETgirl. This will respect the wishes of VETgirl as well as our speakers, so their family or boss don't randomly find them on social media.

- We really want you to promote the VETgirl brand while you're at this conference! However, we have to prohibit marketing of anything else. Any person who attends a VETgirl event that sells, markets, or represents a company or organization for the purpose of obtaining advertising, sales, or subscriptions from any attendee, sponsor, or exhibitor immediately forfeits their registration fee and admission to the VETgirl event.
- We want all veterinary professionals (and their families) at this VETgirl event! However, VETgirl reserves the right to deny, refuse, or revoke admission during pre-registration and on-site registration.
- All attendees must be registered for the VETgirl event or have a guest badge (except if under the age of 18).
- So as not to disrupt the flow of the speakers, please refrain from making commentary, remarks, or discussion during a speaker's presentation; we're all for active participation, but want to reserve this for the end of the talk. Any minor issues should be via direct communication with the authors/speakers.
- By attending our VETgirl conference, you are opting in to receive email from VETgirl and our platinum, gold and silver sponsors. Not interested? No problem - you can opt out at any time by unsubscribing!

Cancellation: Not that we want to, but VETgirl reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel any event at any time (e.g., if all our speakers bail, the Mall of America closes down, an act of God, etc.). In that case, VETgirl will refund you your registration fees it has received from you for this event, but we won't have any further obligation to you of any type, whether monetary or otherwise. (Please cancel your hotel reservations on your own – we're not responsible for that or any related expenses related to travel, work, food, etc.). Accordingly, VETgirl shall in no event have any liability to you and shall have no other obligation to you of any type except as expressly stated above. Such right of termination shall not be unreasonably exercised. VETgirl is not responsible for errors or omissions on the website or promotional materials; after all, we're human. We'll try our best to keep the website and all communication as up to date as possible, however, so you are in the know as best we can. Any refunds issued (less fees, if any) will be processed and issued 30 days after the event. By signing up for the conference, you're acknowledging that you have read the following refunds and cancellation policy listed below.

	Through May 14 th , 2018	From May 15 th through June 15 th , 2018	After June 15 th , 2018
Refund Amount	Registration: $50 Fee	Registration: $100 Fee	No Refund

For some reason, if you're not able to attend and you wish to transfer a registration to another person, no problem. Just email us at info@vetgirlontherun.com and we'll take care of it (Give us a few days to handle these tasks, please. It's just Garret and Justine here, you know). Registrants who do not have this documentation at the time of the conference will be required to pay the full registration fee (That's to protect someone else from stealing your registration). Transfers may also be done on-site provided the registrant canceling has not checked in and has not picked up Conference materials (Ideally, try not to do this as it's a PIA and will stress us out on the day of registration.). That said, VETgirl does reserve the right to deny transfer of any registration at it's discretion.

Disclaimer: VETgirl may have professional or amateur photographers present at the VETgirl conference. Please note that any photographs or videos taken at a VETgirl event may be used in future VETgirl publications, online, or in other VETgirl materials, and that there is a chance your head, face, or body may be in these pictures! Attendance or participation in the meeting constitutes your consent to VETgirl's use and publication of your image or voice in photographs, videotapes, audiotapes, or other electronic media pertaining to VETgirl's events, social media posts, use on the Internet and activities.

Damages: You further acknowledge that no amount of money, or other remedy available at law, would adequately compensate VETgirl for damages, which the parties agree VETgirl would suffer as a result of your violation of the above terms. Here at VETgirl, we don't want to require a court's jurisdiction if any of the above policies are violated, but to protect VETgirl, its members, and the VETgirl conference attendees, VETgirl will use all resources available to do so if there is a violation of the terms as noted above.

We're psyched that you're coming. Please don't be intimidated by the legal mumbo-jumbo. If you have any questions about our guidelines, please contact us at info@vetgirlontherun.com.
